<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rule Change Type</th>
<th>Effective Date</th>
<th>Draft Received</th>
<th>Board Action</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>FEI Rule Change</td>
<td>2/1/2023</td>
<td>8/30/2022</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Rule Change Intent

Current FEI rules allow either a snaffle or double bridle in the FEI 1* and 2* levels. Although a double bridle is required for both the GP and Young Adult Championships, it is felt that a snaffle should be permitted in national qualifying competitions, as it would be in FEI 1* and 2* competitions.

Proponent Details

Contact Information

Dressage

Lauren Moore

lmoore@usef.org

Linked Rules

Comments

Committee Actions

Dressage
3.4. Qualifying and championship classes. Either a snaffle bridle or double bridle is permitted for USEF High Performance and USEF Young Adult qualifying classes held at a national competition. A double bridle is required for USEF High Performance qualifying and championship classes and USEF Grand Prix and Young Adult qualifying and championship classes at the USEF Festival of Champions. Snaffle bridles are permitted for NAYC qualifying and championship classes, USEF Young Rider qualifying and championship classes, and USEF Junior qualifying and championship classes.