Rule Change Intent

Dyeing a horse's mane and tail with rainbow colors is a new fad and the current wording in DR121.15 doesn't prohibit such extravagant coloring.

DR121 Saddlery and Equipment – Change to read:

15. Mane and tail. Braiding of the horse's mane and tail is permitted. False tails are permitted, but a false tail may not contain any metal parts, except hooks. Decoration of the horse with extravagant items, such as ribbons, flowers or glitter in the mane, tail, or on the body, including hooves, is prohibited. Exception: A red ribbon in a horse's tail is permitted to identify a horse that kicks. Only standard horse colors that occur naturally on that horse may be added to the mane, tail, or body.
