Rule Change Intent

Some numbers, especially those in a personal numbering format, are too small to read and are partially obscured by the encasement which presents problems to judges, ring stewards and technical delegates trying to identify a horse.

DR121 Saddlery and Equipment. Change to read:

19. Numbers. All competitors must complete check-in at the show office and receive a show number, before schooling or riding on the show grounds. Failure to check in at the show office prior to schooling will result in the issuance of a Warning Card. Competition-assigned numbers, or the same number in a personal numbering format, must be worn and visible at all times when a horse is being hand-walked, exercised or ridden, under penalty of elimination. Numbers must be minimum 1.5 inches in height and cannot be obscured by the encasement/holder.
