

Rule Change Type	Effective Date	Draft Received	Board Action
Standard	12/1/2021	8/18/2020

Rule Change Intent

Certified Schooling Supervisors are licensed individuals that are trained to make decisions and rule interpretations within the schooling area. They must be allowed to make decisions quickly. The Steward oversight is not necessary in this scenario and also allows Certified Schooling Supervisors to address horse welfare concerns or violations quickly.

Proponent Details

Licensed Officials

Contact Information

Alina Brazzil

abrazzil@usef.org

Linked Rules

Comments

Committee Actions

[...]

8. The Certified ~~S~~schooling ~~S~~supervisor's or the schooling supervisor's decision, after consultation with the Senior Steward, or an official competition steward's decision regarding schooling fences, or tack and equipment rules in the warm-up/schooling area is final. Any decision made by an unlicensed schooling supervisor, if agreed to by the Senior Steward, regarding schooling rules in the warm-up/schooling area is final.

Appendix A. USEF Hunter Schooling Rules

[...]

23. The schooling supervisor's decision, after consultation with the Senior Steward, or an official competition steward's decision regarding schooling fences, or tack and equipment in the warm-up area is final.