

USEF Hunter, Jumper, and Equitation Schooling Rules Guide

Schooling Rules for all equitation classes will follow USEF Jumper Schooling Rules (see JP Appendix A), please refer to EQ114 for exceptions.

VISUAL GUIDE FOR USEF HUNTER, JUMPER, & EQUITATION SCHOOLING RULES

Flower Boxes:

Compliant with HU Schooling Rules.

Not compliant with JP and EQ Schooling Rules per JP Schooling Rule #21 & #22.

Foam Rails:

Compliant with HU Schooling Rules.

Not compliant with JP and EQ Schooling Rules per JP Schooling Rule #21 & #22.

Towels and Tarps:

Compliant with HU, JP, and EQ Schooling Rules.

If laid over an oxer, it may only be laid over the front rail(s) per HU Schooling Rules #22 and JP Schooling Rules #22.

Liverpools:

Compliant with HU and EQ Schooling Rules (EQ114).

Only compliant with JP Schooling Rules if supplied by management. If a liverpool is not supplied by management, then it is not compliant. Exhibitors may not use other materials as liverpools per JP Schooling Rule #21.

Swedish Oxers:

Compliant with HU Schooling Rules (low to high, no more than 6" height difference for ponies and 18" height difference for horses per HU Schooling Rule #21) and EQ Schooling Rules (maximum 12" difference per EQ114.1).

Not compliant with JP Schooling Rules per JP Schooling Rule #17.