<td>Governor Brown announced updated guidelines on outdoor school sports, allowing high schools to begin outdoor contact sports, including football, so long as these high schools follow health and safety protocols and have a testing program. Schools in High and Extreme Risk counties must institute additional protocols. The relaxing of guidelines also extends to college athletics, allowing for NCAA, Division I, and Division II athletic programs to resume, with the same restrictions and requirements on Division 1 schools applying to Division 2 and 3 schools.
