

United States Equestrian Federation, Inc.
Code of Ethics Policy

Board of Directors, Committee Members, and Exempt Staff

As the guardians of the sport of equestrian in the United States, and because we operate in the public spotlight, we are expected to conduct our affairs in a manner consistent with the great trust that has been placed in us. This requires our behavior to conform to the highest ethical principles. See Bylaw 343 regarding Conflict and Duality of Interest. For these reasons, the United States Equestrian Federation, Inc. (USEF) requires its volunteers to conduct business with integrity, to maintain a standard of ethical conduct consistent with the regulations of all countries and jurisdictions in which USEF conducts business, and to be guided by the knowledge that we are guardians of equestrian sport and must maintain the values, spirit, and ideals of the sport and its part in the Olympic movement. Furthermore, because the appearance of impropriety can be just as damaging as actual impropriety, conduct which appears to be improper is also unacceptable. (See definitions below.) Accordingly, volunteers are required to comply with the following USEF Code of Ethics when representing or participating in USEF activities, selection procedures, or events:

1. Conduct all dealings with honesty and fairness.
2. Respect the rights of all employees and volunteers to fair treatment and equal opportunity, free from discrimination or harassment of any type.
3. Know, understand and comply with the laws, regulations, and codes of conduct governing the conduct of USEF competitions and business – both domestic and foreign.
4. Ensure that all transactions are handled honestly and recorded accurately.
5. Protect information that belongs to USEF, its donors, sponsors, suppliers, employees and volunteers.
6. Avoid conflicts of interest, both real and perceived.
7. Never use USEF assets or information for personal gain.
8. Recognize that even the appearance of misconduct or impropriety can be very damaging to the reputation of the USEF, and act accordingly.

United States Equestrian Federation, Inc.
Conflict of Interest Policy

Board of Directors, Committee Members, Selectors, and Exempt Level Staff Part I –

Conflict of Interest, Other Than Related Party Transactions

Pursuant to the United States Equestrian Federation, Inc. "USEF" Bylaw 343.3, this Conflict of Interest Policy (the "Policy") provides a framework of integrity for interactions with or on behalf of the USEF. Please note that Related Party Transactions are addressed separately according to the provisions set forth in Part II of this Policy. Given the unique makeup of the USEF family, more in--depth questions may arise regarding conflicts of interest. For this reason the following guidance is provided:

- USEF defines a conflict of interest as any personal or financial (both direct and indirect) relationship including relationships of family members (see definition below) that could influence or be perceived to influence your objectivity when representing or conducting business for, or on behalf of, USEF or participating in a USEF selection process.
- USEF defines "family" for these purposes as follows: spouse, parent, child or spouse of a child, brother, sister, spouse of a brother or sister, a cohabiting companion, or any other individual with a significant familial or familial--like relationship. Both parent and child shall include step--parent and step--child.
- USEF defines a substantial appearance of a conflict of interest as whenever others may reasonably infer from the circumstances that a conflict exists. Because the appearance of impropriety can be just as damaging to the USEF as actual impropriety, conduct that may reasonably appear to others to be improper must be disclosed so that the appropriate USEF board or committee* may determine whether the situation presents a substantial appearance of a conflict of interest such that a prohibited conflict of interest may be deemed to exist. For these reasons, an individual must recuse himself from participating in the USEF activity giving rise to the substantial appearance of a conflict of interest unless and until it is determined that no conflict exists.
- Each USEF Board member, committee member, selector, and exempt employee shall fulfill his obligation to disclose any conflict by signing this Policy and submitting Exhibits A and B and, if applicable, C. This must be done within 14 days of acceptance of the position or the individual cannot participate in any relevant meetings. Once an individual has signed this Policy, it is incumbent upon him to update the Exhibits as appropriate. This is a continuing obligation upon the individual.
- In accordance with Bylaw 343, this Policy also covers duality of interests and the selection of athletes, horses, coaches, trainers, managers, administrators, veterinarians, officials and others for competitions.

*For purposes of this Policy, the term "committee" includes any group of individuals designated by the President, Board, or Council, or committee established to perform a particular task (e.g., task forces, ad hoc committees).

Review of Disclosures

All conflict of interest disclosures and certification statements submitted pursuant to this Part I will be reviewed by the Legal Department. The Legal Department consults with the Audit Committee Chair on all matters disclosed for presentation to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee reviews the disclosures and determines whether the conflicted individual is precluded from serving in any capacity and whether appropriate measures need to be implemented to ensure integrity and the appearance of integrity.

Conflicts or perceived conflicts that arise as to a particular matter

During an individual's service on the Board, committee, council, or as an employee, if a question arises as to whether a particular situation is indeed a conflict of interest, and if circumstances are such that there is not sufficient time to submit the matter to the Audit Committee, then (i) the interested committee (the committee which is impacted by the potential conflict of interest) will make the determination according to the Procedure set forth below, and (ii) the determination will be reported, in writing, to the Audit Committee for review and ratification. For questions submitted to the interested committee, a majority vote of those present (and not otherwise conflicted) will prevail. The Procedure outlined below will not apply when an employee is involved. For conflicts that arise concerning employees, the matter must be referred to the Audit Committee for a determination.

If personal or financial interests exist with any person or concern with whom the USEF has a business or other relationship or you have a personal or financial relationship with a candidate (horse or human) for a team or individual chosen by a selection procedure or a substantial appearance of a conflict of interest exists (see definition above) and the other relationship or interest could influence or be perceived to influence the objectivity of your decisions, or if a committee determines that a conflict of interest exists, or if a duality of interest exists, you must follow this procedure (except for Related Party Transactions and matters involving employees, which will be referred to the Audit Committee):

Disclosure of Actual or Potential Conflict. The individual with the conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest shall immediately disclose all material facts relating to the existence of a conflict or potential conflict when the issue for which the conflict exists is brought up at the meeting. This disclosure should include the nature of the conflict and why the individual believes it may be considered to be a conflict.

Provision of Information. The individual with the actual or potential conflict should provide to the board or committee any information relevant to the subject that he might have. In the case of a potential conflict, the board or committee will determine whether a substantial appearance of a conflict of interest exists; if so, the following procedures apply:

- Leave Meeting. The individual with the potential conflict must then leave the meeting and not participate at all in the deliberations on the matter and any vote that might be taken. If, after the person has left the room, the deliberating body has questions that he could answer, he can be brought back into the meeting for the sole purpose of answering those questions. Once the questions have been resolved, he should vacate again until the deliberations have been completed and the vote has been taken;

- Deliberation and Vote. The remainder of the committee or board should conduct the deliberation on the matter at hand and, if appropriate, proceed to a vote.

At all times, the conflicted person does count for determination of a quorum.

Part II -- Related Party Transactions

USEF is prohibited from entering into any Related Party Transaction unless the transaction is determined by the USEF Board of Directors to be fair, reasonable and in the corporation's best interest at the time of such determination. Further, any director, officer or key employee who has an interest in a related party transaction shall disclose in good faith to the Board, or an authorized committee thereof, and/or the Audit Committee, the material facts concerning such interest. The Board may delegate the review and approval of Related Party Transactions to the Audit Committee, in which case all references to the Board in this Part II of this Policy shall be deemed to refer to the Audit Committee.

Before engaging in a related party transaction, the USEF Board of Directors must:

- (1) Consider alternative transactions to the extent available;
- (2) Approve the transaction by not less than a majority vote of the directors present at the meeting; and
- (3) Contemporaneously document in writing the basis for the decision, including its consideration of any alternative transactions.

A "related party transaction" is defined as "any transaction, agreement or any other arrangement in which a director, officer, related party has a financial interest and in which the corporation or any affiliate of the corporation is a participant."

A "related party" is defined as:

- (i) any director, officer or key employee of the corporation or any affiliate of the corporation;
- (ii) any relative of any director, officer or key employee of the corporation or any affiliate of the corporation;
- (iii) any entity in which any individual described in clauses (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph has a thirty--five percent or greater ownership or beneficial interest or, in the case of a partnership or professional corporation, a direct or indirect ownership interest in excess of five percent; or
- (iv) substantial contributors to the corporation (within the current fiscal year or the past five fiscal years).

A "key employee" is "any person who is in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the [USEF]."

Inappropriate hospitality or gift giving between individuals can also create a conflict of interest. Gifts, cash, travel, hotel accommodations, entertainment or favors are neither to be given nor received except those of nominal value exchanged in the normal course of business. Favors or other assets or gifts may be accepted if they are part of open and generally accepted practices and serve to promote the best interest of USEF and would not embarrass the individual or USEF if publicly disclosed and do not compromise the objectivity and integrity of the recipient or donor.

Part III -- Failure to Disclose and Enforcement

Failure to Disclose

If the Board of Directors, applicable committee, or any other individual has reasonable cause to believe an individual subject to this Policy has failed to disclose an actual or potential conflict of interest, he shall notify the Chief Executive Officer, General Counsel, or any member of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will address the report in the same manner that it addresses reported Policy violations outlined below under "Enforcement."

Enforcement

Any person who violates or condones the violation of this Policy is subject to disciplinary measures, which may include termination of membership; expulsion from the board, council, or committee; or termination of employment. Allegations of violations should be reported to the Chief Executive Officer, General Counsel, or any member of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will review the reported violation and initiate an investigation and recommend appropriate action in a confidential report to the Board of Directors.

Any questions concerning this Policy should be addressed to the General Counsel, Sonja S. Keating, at the following address:
