

US Equestrian Updates 2018 Eventing Fall Training Lists

The US Equestrian (USEF) Eventing High Performance Committee has updated the training lists for the 2018 Eventing Fall Training List. The US Equestrian High Performance Program is designed to achieve Olympic qualification and medals in the current Games cycle, in addition to building a sustainable foundation for the success of future championships. The Eventing High Performance Program consists of the Elite, Development, and Emerging Athletes Programs.

The Elite Program consists of athlete/horse combinations that have established themselves as having met the criteria, or demonstrated potential to meet the criteria required to be competitive at CCI3* and CCI4* events and championships.

Elite Training List:

Will Coleman (Charlottesville, Va.) and Tight Lines, The Conair Syndicate's 11-year-old French Thoroughbred gelding

Phillip Dutton (West Grove, Pa.) and I'm Sew Ready, Kristine and John Norton's 14-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding, and Z, the 10-year-old Zangersheide gelding owned by Thomas Tierney, Simon Roosevelt, Suzanne Lacy, Caroline Moran, and Ann Jones
