

HOW DO MICROCHIPS WORK?

1. Scan horse to verify whether a microchip has been implanted previously.

2. Scan to verify that the microchip is functional and that the ID number matches the one on the barcode label.

3. Implant the microchip then rescan the horse to verify that the microchip was implanted correctly and has the correct ID number.