

Basic Services for FEI Discipline Athletes

Athlete Eligibility

Basic services are available to eligible athletes per the definition and criteria outlined below:

- Olympic & Paralympic Discipline Eligibility Criteria – Athletes will be eligible for the USEF HSHWP resources through December 31st of the year following the date at which they meet one of the qualifying criteria below:
 - If applicable to the discipline, athletes that have been named to Developing, Pre-Elite, or Elite Programs.
 - If applicable to the discipline, athletes that have been named to an official Observation List.
 - Athletes that have been selected to the U.S. Team at a targeted competition within the last 12 months, including travelling reserve athletes.
- Non-Olympic/Paralympic Discipline Eligibility Criteria – Athletes will be eligible for the USEF HSHWP resources through December 31st of the year following the date at which they meet one of the qualifying criteria below:
 - If applicable to the discipline, athletes that have been named to Elite Programs
 - Athletes that have been selected to the U.S. Team at an FEI Championship in the last 24 months, including travelling reserve athletes.

Athletes that incur a USEF or FEI suspension may become ineligible for resources on the date the suspension goes into effect.

Other athletes may be granted access to the resources on a case-by-case basis following recommendations by discipline team staff and approved by the Director of FEI Sport.
