PET Scans for Equine Athletes

Q&A with Dr. Mathieu Spriet

Associate Professor of Diagnostic Imaging at the School of Veterinary Medicine at the University of California- Davis. In 2015, Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation funded the first research project that performed positron emission tomography (PET) scans on equine athletes.

In 2015, Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation funded the first research project that performed positron emission tomography (PET) scans on equine athletes. Grayson followed that up with additional research funding in 2019. Now, this cutting-edge research will assist vets coast to coast in identifying lameness problems that are hard to locate. Join us in celebrating ten years of PET-positron emission tomography scans for equine athletes. Read our Q & A with Dr. Mathieu Spriet, Associate Professor of Diagnostic Imaging at the School of Veterinary Medicine at the University of California - Davis.
