

Public Service Announcements

US Equestrian: There has never been a more exciting time to be a part of US Equestrian! We know that finding quality, affordable health coverage for individuals and your small businesses in the horse industry is important and challenging, and that's why US Equestrian has added new member benefits which provide customized health coverage options for your individual and small business needs. Our new health and insurance benefits are just part of the great benefits of membership, including the Learning Center, USEF Network, and US Equestrian magazine, and more! Becoming a part of our community has never been easier. Join the joy, spread the joy, and discover the joy of a US Equestrian membership by visiting usequestrian.org

USEF Network: The USEF Network features live-streaming and on-demand video from a wide range of exciting equestrian events each year. US Equestrian members receive full access to over 5,000 hours of content, including competitions and clinics. To take advantage of the USEF Network, sign up for a fan membership by visiting USEquestrian.org/join.
