EV113.2 Tracking #053-25 Draft #1 Approved

Extraordinary Change Reason

The current language in EV113 categorizes dangerous riding as a Yellow Warning Card or "major misconduct", which is not the intent of the rule. The implementation of the new warning system in April, without the update of references in the Eventing chapter, negatively impacts Athletes/Member by mis categorizing certain infractions or behavior as a Yellow Warning Card. This could result in a member receiving a fine or suspension for behavior that was not severe enough to warrant such action.

Rule Change Intent

Effective April 1, 2025, the approval of the rule change proposal to GR1037 Warning Card System (Tracking #067-24) introduced a second warning option, the Recorded Warning, in addition to a Yellow Warning Card. Previously, a Yellow Warning Card was the sole option for a written warning. Therefore, the Eventing Chapter currently only references “Yellow Warning Card”. Due to the new changes to the Warning Card System, the references in the Eventing Chapter are affected as certain instances are automatically considered, “misconduct [that] is not a minor offense but not severe enough to warrant formal disciplinary action through the Federation Regulation Department” as defined in GR1037. However, this was not the intent of EV113. Dangerous riding is considered a “minor offense”. Additionally, at FEI Events Dangerous Riding incurs an Eventing Recorded Warning, which is the equivalent to a USEF Recorded Warning. The proposed ensures Dangerous Riding warnings are consistent across all levels of eventing.

Stephanie Reimers — Draft #1

The option to issue a yellow card should remain an option in the event that the DR is severe or has already been penalized by a written warning.

EV113 Dangerous Riding

2. Dangerous Riding will be penalized accordingly, at the discretion of the Ground Jury. Athletes who engage in Dangerous Riding must receive 25 penalties, be Eliminated, and/or issued a ~~Yellow Warning Card~~ Recorded Warning. The overall score for the Horse/Athlete combination must not count as a qualifying MER.
